Safe

Looks safe

The URL 'https://dhl.de/' has been assessed as Safe due to the presence of a valid SSL certificate issued by a known entity, Deutsche Post AG. The domain has a low threat score of 6/100, and the page content closely resembles the legitimate DHL website, as indicated by the HTML similarity score of 0.19. Additionally, the domain is not blacklisted in any major phishing databases, and there are no signs of credential harvesting or suspicious scripts. However, the reuse of the DHL logo and the presence of suspicious script patterns warrant close monitoring.
